

Smita M Rajaram Profile

Smita M Rajaram has been working in the area of Social Communication for the past 18 years, on issues ranging from reproductive rights, child survival, trafficking of humans, etc. A Political Science Honors from LSR, New Delhi and a Masters in International Studies from JNU, New Delhi, she has worked on multiple strategic research projects, communication programs, Public Relations assignments, among other areas, with clients including INGOs such as UNICEF, UNODC as well as with the Ministries of Health & Family Welfare, Women and Child Welfare and others. Smita was actively engaged with THOT as Deputy Director since inception and is currently on a short sabbatical.

